Mexican Celebration.

The national independence day of Mexico was appropriately celebrated at Florence on the 15th and 16th insts. by all classes of Americans. When we say Americans we mean Mexican citizens as well, for all are true Americans, and those that sprang from the soil of America are justly entitled to the name. And it does not detract one iota from being born on Mexican soil, or of Mexican blood, or under the flag of our sister republic. A proper observance of the independence of any republic but adds new zeal, new inspiration and a greater love and devotion to all republican forms of government. As all monarchical forms of government are in sympathy with others of like government, and enemies to republics, so should all republics be in sympathy with, and celebrate as much as may be, all republican forms of government that guarantee and protect equal rights and the greatest liberties to the people. The Mexican people are better lacking in patriotism. Their great struggle for liberty 80 years ago, that made them a nation and forever freed them from the domination of Spain, has inspired them with a love for liberty and independence that places them in sympathy with all people who are struggling for freedom and self government. To the Mexican citizens here is due almost entirely the success of the celebration. Too much credit cannot be given the Olivas band and their co-workers whose efforts made the celebration a success. Space will not allow us to enter into detail, or indulge in individual mention of all those who participated in the various exercises. The city and plaza were elaborately decorated with a profusion of Mexican national colors and the stars and stripes. Old Glory held the pride of place. The large portraits of Washington and Hidalgo were placed side by side and appropriately draped. A grand stand was erected on the plaza, covered with flags and bunting, and beautifully illuminated. On the evening of the 15th the band discoursed sweet music; the declaration of independence was read, the Mexican national hymn was rendered, and speeches were made by some of our best Mexican orators. On the 16th the large procession formed on Main street and passed through the principal streets and proceeded to the grand stand. The procession is pronounced one of the best ever witnessed in Florence. The procession was led by the brass band, and followed by the car of state elaborately decorated, with young ladies dressed in national colors representing the different states and territories, and with a fitting representation of the two republics, and this was followed by an appropriate display of merchants and business men, and with various agricultural implements representing the progress and interests of the country. In the evening a number of patriotic speeches were made both in English and Spanish, and the whole closed with a grand display of fireworks, after which a grand ball was given at Keating hall. All present expressed themselves satisfied, and no doubt retired to their homes with a greater love for a republican form of government.

S. R. Cooley watchman at the Ripsey, was a visitor in Florence Thursday.

Still More Counterfeiting.

The Secret Service has unearthed another band of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of bogus bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. Things of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitation, notably the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitators but no equals for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general debility. The Bitters sets things right in the stomach, and when the stomach is in good order it makes good blood and plenty of it. In this manner the Bitters get at the seat of strength and vitality, and restore vigor to the weak and debilitated. Beware of counterfeits when buying.

A STRINGENT FOOD LAW.

Prohibits the Use of Arsenic or Alum in all Articles of Diet.

The law enacted by the Missouri legislature, a copy of which was recently published in our columns, and which prohibits the manufacture or sale of any article intended for food or to be used in the preparation of food, which contains alum, arsenic, ammonia, etc., plates that state in the lead in the matter of sanitary legislation.

Laws restricting the use of alum in bread have been in England, Germany and France for many years. In this country, in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and several other states, direct legislation in reference to the sale of alum baking powders has also been effected. In several of these states their sale is prohibited unless they are branded to show that they contain alum, and in the District of Columbia, under the laws of Congress, the sale of bread containing alum has been made illegal.

Following are the names of some of the brands of baking powder sold in this vicinity which are shown by recent analysis to contain alum. Housekeepers and grocers should cut the list out and keep it for reference:

BAKING POWDERS CONTAINING ALUM:

K. C. J. U. C. J. Contain Alum.

Manf. by Jacques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

BON BON Contain Alum.

Manf. by Grant Chemical Co., Chicago.

HOME Contain Alum.

Manf. by Home Baking Powder Co., San Francisco.

PERFECT Contain Alum.

Manf. by Perfect Baking Powder Co., St. Louis.

CLOVER LEAF Contain Alum.

Manf. by Pacific Mfg. Co., Los Angeles.

CALUMET Contain Alum.

Manf. by Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago.

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is therefore usually indicated by the price.

Rev. I. T. Whittemore will soon leave for Pasadena, Cal., where he expects to make his future home. Florence loses one of her most progressive citizens in his departure. The prayers and best wishes of many a sincere heart go with the "Little Parson."

The Florence band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Truman Monday evening, at the residence of Mrs. N. White. The bride and groom appeared, and after an appropriate acknowledgment and appreciation of the music, the band retired. Mr. and Mrs. Truman will soon occupy their home on Main street.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Lovin left Wednesday for Phoenix, where he has gone to bring back conductor Burns, late of the Arizona & Utah railroad, who is charged with appropriating money intrusted to his care to be delivered to parties in Kingman by a resident of chloride.

A West Virginia man named Mercer has just taken on more fat, or in other words has just married Miss Moffat, his fifth wife, the other wives having been sisters of Miss Moffat. The other four died of consumption. There is one Miss Moffat left, aged 20 years. —Williams News.

The Board of Supervisors met on Monday last to receive the duplicate assessment roll. It was prepared by Judge C. M. Marshall, and who was highly complimented by the board for his excellent work.

This nugget of truth is nosing its way through the editorial columns of the western papers: "A child born; the doctor in attendance gets $10, the editor gets 9. It is christened; the minister gets $5 and the editor 60. When it marries the minister gets $10 and a piece of cake, the editor 600. In the course of time it dies, and the doctor gets from $100 to $500, the minister gets perhaps another $5, the undertaker from $25 to $200. The editor prints a notice of death and obituary two columns long and gets 6000. Besides lodge and society resolutions, a free card of thanks and a lot of poetry. No wonder the editor gets rich.

PEARS! PEARS!! Those who may be wishing nice Bartlett pears for family use can have them from my orchard, properly packed, marked and delivered to the stage line's office at Mesa, at $1 per box, 40 pounds net.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. The Ray Copper Company, Ltd.

John Kasser and Dr. T. S. Collins returned says the Globe Belt, from a trip to Mineral creek. Mr. Kasser informs us that the Ray Copper Co., Ltd. has about forty men employed, and is putting on all the men who apply for work. Alexander Hill, engineer for the company, is now at the mines, having recently returned from England. The company is doing some development work, and operations will be enlarged as the force of miners increases. Bad air drove the contractors from the lones shaft, which is now to be equipped with a hoist and blower. The old Ray mill has been repaired and it was expected would be started for a trial run last Tuesday. The run will be a test to determine the kind of a plant needed, the intention of the company being to erect works of large capacity.

A system of numbering the employees has been introduced which will not meet with favor among self respecting white miners. Every man is required to wear a metal star bearing his number. The hole to be also adopted, which perhaps may not be objected to by the Mexicans, of whom the company employs a good many.

The committee on arrangements for the celebration of Mexico's independence desire to return to the people of Florence their sincere thanks for the valuable assistance rendered them in making the celebration a success.

A Washington telegram says: "Acting secretary of the interior has approved a change in the rules of practice of the general land office that will be of general interest in the public land states. It provides that when a special agent, after investigating an alleged fraudulent entry location or claim, recommends the cancellation of such entry the claimant shall be given notice of the charges made by the agent and will be allowed thirty days in which to ask for a hearing before the local officers. At the hearing, if it is asked for, the burden of proof of fraud is to be on the government. Should the entryman fail to request a hearing, the case is to follow the same routine through the local and general land office as all ex parte cases, and the entryman is allowed the right of appeal if the decision of the local officers is against him. It has been the practice heretofore to cancel entries on the recommendation of a special agent without notice to the entryman."

How Old She Looks

Poor clothes cannot make you look old. Even pale cheeks won't do it. Your household cares may be heavy and disappointments may be deep, but they cannot make you look old. One thing does it and never fails. It is impossible to look young with the color of seventy years in your hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

permanently postpones the fall-signs of age. Used according to directions it gradually brings back the color of youth. At fifty your hair may look as it did at fifteen. It thickens the hair also; stops it from falling out; and cleanses the scalp from dandruff. Shall we send you our book on the Hair and its Diseases?

The Best Advice Free. If you do not obtain all the benefit you expect from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily removed. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

No town of size or importance can ever expect or hope to prosper and progress unless it has a good live newspaper to keep the advantages and chances of the town before the public of other communities. And surely no man can publish such a paper, for any length of time, unless he has the hearty co-operation and support of every business and professional man in the town. No man ever yet lost a cent by advertising in and supporting his home paper. But many a one has lost dollars by not aiding the paper of their town in every way he could. —[Arizona].
